Expanding Choice & Autonomy

Thanks to Minnesota's Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) providers, older adults and people with disabilities have access to high-quality services and support. In response to a new federal HCBS rule, DHS is now partnering with providers to expand choice and autonomy for people who receive HCBS. The rule raises expectations around what is possible for older adults and people with disabilities—and it requires changing the way some services are provided.

Next steps: Provider Attestation Process

HCBS providers will need to complete an online form demonstrating they meet the new requirements. Watch your mailbox for more information.
